State Representative Todd Hunter Reappointed to Calendars Committee

AUSTIN, TX – Speaker of the House Joe Straus (R-San Antonio) today announced committee assignments for the 85th Legislative Session of the Texas House of Representatives, reappointing State Representative Todd Hunter (R-Corpus Christi) to the powerful Calendars Committee.

“Chairman Hunter will continue to provide strong leadership in a very important role. The Chairman of the Calendars Committee needs to have an open and respectful relationship with other legislators, and that’s why Chairman Hunter is the right person for the job,” said Speaker Straus.

“I am honored to be appointed as Chairman of the House Calendars Committee by Speaker Straus. It is a great position to hold for the State of Texas as well as our South Texas region. I look forward to working hard this legislative session,” said Rep. Hunter.

Hunter will lead the committee designated to determine when and how legislation will be considered by the Texas House of Representatives.

Hunter was also named as Vice Chairman of Criminal Jurisprudence and as a member of the County Affairs Committee.

The House is divided into 38 standing committees and 2 select committees for the 85th Legislature to accommodate for the high volume and complexity of the legislation at hand. Committee assignments are made by the Speaker of the House.

Todd A. Hunter was born in Bartlesville, Oklahoma on August 26, 1953. He attended the University of Kansas and Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law. Hunter has practiced law since November 1978 and is currently a partner of Hunter, Barker & Fancher, in Corpus Christi, Texas. Todd and his wife, Alexis Taylor Hunter, have three children: Todd Jr., Michael and Christina.

In 2016, Representative Hunter was elected to his 9th term. His key issues are Windstorm, Cruise Ship Development, Water, Workforce Development, Anti-Human Trafficking and Domestic Violence. Hunter has lived in the Coastal Bend since 1978 and has served as a State Representative for Nueces, San Patricio, Aransas, Calhoun, Jackson and Refugio counties.
